1. SYNOPSIS OF THE SHORT FILM

"IZAÑA. The place where to find the answers"

A scientific - divulgative documentary across the time, 100 years of history of Aemet-Izaña's Atmospheric Observatory.

From its beginnings, the atmospheric observatory has turned into a modal worldwide into diverse programs of atmospheric vigilance as: greenhouse gases, the cycle of the carbon, ozone, ultraviolet radiation, infrared interphotometry map-making and aerosols.

Its researchers and technical personnel report across brief interviews how they realize a follow-up of the alteration that is taking produced in the atmosphere, a few variations that are causing changes in the climate and in the quality of the air worldwide.

Izaña's Atmospheric Observatory is one of few stations of the program of Atmospheric Global Vigilance, of the Meteorological World Organization and Center of Calibration thanks to the conditions with which it surrounds itself.

Across striking images, interesting questions on the factors that concern the global warming and the relevancy of the results for the human being, the spectator will end up by knowing the long experience of Izaña's Atmospheric Observatory, its technological capacity, its programs and especially, its importance worldwide.
